

Regis University Athletics

2007-08 Ranger Men's Soccer

Sports Information Director: Jeremy Phillips
Office: (303) 458-4052, Cell: (303) 258-6399, Fax: (303) 964-3659

www.regisrangers.com

For Immediate Release: March 26, 2008

Regis Men's Soccer Ink Six to National Letters of Intent

Six outstanding student-athletes to continue their athletic and academic excellence at Regis University

Denver, Colo.: Regis University head men's soccer coach Keith Tiemeyer has announced that five high school seniors and one Division I transfer have signed with Regis to continue their academic and athletic careers. Tiemeyer announced that Ben Sabados, Kyle Reddy, James Martinez, Kyle Emge, and Patrick Freeman have signed their National Letter of Intent to attend Regis, while Gary Cole will be transferring from the University of Vermont.

Ben Sabados, a goalkeeper from Broomfield, Colo., helped lead his time to a 57-2-1 record during his career including two state championships. Broomfield completed the 2007 season with a perfect 20-0 record with a 1-0 overtime victory over Mullen in the Colorado 4A State Championship game. In 2007, he made 85 saves and was named the Boulder Daily Camera Player of the Year. He was also named all-conference, all-western region and Denver Post Class 4A All-State Honorable Mention.

Kyle Reddy, a forward/midfielder, joined Sabados on Broomfield's two state championship teams. In his career he amassed 37 goals and 28 assists. He was named all-conference, all-state honorable mention and all-region second team his junior season. During his senior campaign he helped lead his team to a perfect 20-0 season, while garnering Denver Post Class 4A First-Team All-State honors.

James Martinez, a defender from Lakewood, Colo., led Golden High School to a 13-3-1 record as a senior scoring eight goals and tallying three assists. He is a two-time first team all-conference and all-state selection. He also led his team to the State Cup Championship three times.

Kyle Emge, a midfielder/forward from Rocky Mountain High School, is a two-time first team all-conference selection. He led the Fort Collins Arsenal to a state championship and was a semi-finalist at the Far West Regional's.

Patrick Freeman, a forward from Wheat Ridge, Colo., scored 45 career goals at Wheat Ridge High School. A four time letter winner he led the Jeffco Conference 5A in scoring his senior season. As a freshman he earned honorable mention all-conference honors and was named to the second team as sophomore and the first team as a junior. He was twice named offensive most valuable player as a sophomore and a junior. Freeman was a member of the state Olympic Development team and attended the Region IV camp for three years. He was also a part of the Colorado Rapids Academy in 2008.

Gary Cole, a defender who transferred from the University of Vermont, played his high school soccer at Arapahoe High School. At Vermont he played in 11 games and made seven starts for the Catamounts. In 2006 he was named the Continental League Player of the Year. He was also named to the Denver Post All-Colorado Team, the All-Rocky Mountain team and was an all-state selection that same year. While at Arapahoe High School he was a three-time all-conference selection as well.

The Rangers finished the season with a 11-7-1 record and finished their season with a 2-0 first round loss in the RMAC tournament under first year head coach Keith Tiemeyer. This marked the first time since 2002 that the Rangers have qualified for the RMAC postseason tournament.

Regis University is a member of NCAA Division II and competes in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC).